CONVICTION OF CASHIER IS VALLEY SENSATION

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

HARRISONBURG, VA., June 26.—The sensation of the week in the valley was the trial and conviction of Harry Stewart, defaulting cashier of the First National Bank of New Market, who was given five years in the Federal prison at Moundsville, W. Va. His shortage was about $4,000. Stewart disappeared about two months ago, when, at a meeting of the directors of the bank, he was rebuked for "spending more than the amount of his salary."

Three weeks ago the Federal authorities located the missing cashier in San Francisco and brought him back to Virginia. In the Federal Court in Harrisonburg he was indicted by the grand jury. The trial was transferred to Roanoke, where he was tried and given five years.

Stewart is a member of a prominent Pennsylvania family. He is only twenty-two years old and his attorney pleaded that his client took the money from the streets of "peculiar circumstances." When located by the Federal officer he was penniless and wandering about the streets of San Francisco.

The bank was secured by a bonding company and will lose nothing.

Fork Union Will Celebrate.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

FORK UNION, VA., June 26.—There will be held at the county fair grounds at Carysbrook a big county picnic on Saturday, July 3. Addresses will be made by John Garland Pollard, Attorney-General of the State, and A. B. Thornhill, of the State Farmers' Union.

NEWSPAPER MAN FINED FOR CONTEMPT OF COURT

R. B. Smythe Must Pay $25 and Costs—Editor Showalter Is Found Not Guilty.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

HARRISONBURG, VA., June 26.—In the Circuit Court of Rockingham today, Judge A. E. King, of Roanoke, fined R. B. Smythe, business manager of the Harrisonburg News-Record, $25 and costs for contempt of court. The contempt proceedings were instituted by the Rockingham Publishing Company, plaintiff in an action pending in the court, in which the News-Record Company, Smythe and W. J. Showalter, editor of the paper, are defendants.

Smythe and Showalter were charged with printing articles which tended to obstruct justice in that they reflected upon litigants and possible witnesses for the plaintiff. Showalter's defense was that he intended to comment upon a case which he thought had been passed upon by a judge of the Supreme Court in which the same parties were interested, and that he did not know the suit in question was pending. Smythe admitted writing the article, but contended he did so under provocation. The court accepted Showalter's plea, but gave Smythe the minimum fine.

Judge King was designated by Governor Stuart to sit in the case in place of Judge Haas, who considered himself disqualified. Former Senator George B. Keozell is the principal stockholder of the Rockingham Publishing Company, which recently secured the appointment of a receiver for the Daily News-Record, but an appeal and several sales were granted by Judge George M. Harrison, leaving the News-Record Company and Smythe in control of the paper until the Supreme Court reviews the case.

FREDERICKSBURG BOY BELIEVED TO BE DROWNED

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]

FREDERICKSBURG, VA., June 26.—Charles Fulton, sixteen-year-old son of Mrs. Elizabeth C. Fulton, of this city, is believed to have drowned in the Rappahannock River. On Friday afternoon he left his home, and is believed to have gone to what is known as "Second Island," this city, to go in bathing. When he failed to return home, the alarm was given and a search made. His clothes were found on the bank of the river just opposite the silk mill. The river was dragged and search continued by citizens and several troops of Boy Scouts, but the body has not been found.
